Children's Work Support & Julie Barnwell

As you are aware, Julie B finished as our children's worker at the end of July. However, pending the appoint of a replacement children's worker, Julie has offered to continue in a support role for 5 hours a week which the deacons/trustees have gratefully accepted.

Julie will continue to support and develop our volunteers, sort out safer recruitment administration (and other safeguarding essentials) and lead our school assembly team.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

Thank you very much for the lovely flowers, card and generous gift presented to me by Val to mark the end of my time as children's worker.

New Wine 2020 – ‘United 20’

Now that New Wine has relocated to Peterborough Showground it is too good to miss. Great worship, great teaching, great seminars, great ministries for children and teens. We'd love to see more folk from OBC enjoying the blessings of New Wine so please consider whether to go along next year. We realise the costs associated with such an event can be prohibitive for some, especially families, but don't let this stop you considering – we may be able to help. Have a look here for an indication of prices <https://united.new-wine.org/united20> and here for an indication of what goes on <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Tn8TB-i9OqM> As a church we'll be booking for United Week 1 25 July - 31 July 2020

Tiddlers Toy Appeal

Looking to clear out your toy cupboard? If so, Tiddlers would love to take your unwanted toys off your hands provided they are in a very good condition and suitable for children under the age of 4 (no soft toys please). Please speak to Sue Bamber or Joy Steele.

Our Children Need You!

Please prayerfully consider whether you might be involved in one of our Sunday morning groups for children and youth (Adventure for 0-4s, Discover/Explore for 4-11s and Connect for 11-14s).

Each group would really appreciate 1-2 more helpers. Most volunteers help out just once a month.

See Julie B or one of the group leaders if you would like to know more.

Summer Sundays for Children & Youth

Please note the different arrangements for children & youth on Sunday mornings during the school holidays

From 28th July, there will be no Adventure but parents are very welcome to look after their pre-school children in the upstairs room any time during the service.

Discover and Explore (4-11s) will be together in the back room from 21st July.

There will be no Connect, from 21st July, so our 11-14s will remain in the service.

All groups will restart on 8th September.

Change of Age Ranges for Children & Youth Groups

From 8th September:-

- Discover will be for children from Reception-Year 2.
- Explore will be for children from Year 3-5.
- Connect will be for young people in Years 6, 7 & 8.
- Encounter will be for young people in Years 9-13.

Our Open the Book school assembly team would welcome 1-2 more volunteers.

You just need a loud voice, a sense of fun and not to mind looking silly in home-made costumes. See Julie Barnwell to find out more.

Kairos is a Christian mission which goes into prisons to show the transforming love of Jesus Christ to inmates. Last year a team went into Stocken Prison and at the end of the week 16 inmates made a commitment to Jesus and their lives were visibly transformed. In October a team of 25 of us are returning to Stocken to work with another group of men. One of the ways in which love for the men is shown is by people on the outside baking cookies.

We have committed to baking 14,000 cookies this year to support and 'feed' the mission. Please click here or see Ebe to find out more information.
