Pentecost Sunday

After Jesus went back to heaven, all the disciples carried on hanging out together. One day they were all in a house together when something very strange happened: suddenly they house was filled with the sound of a fierce wind. Special little flames of fire rested over them but didn't burn them. All the disciples began to speak in different languages. This was the Holy Spirit

THIS WEEK'S Memory Verse

*They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak different languages.
Acts 2 v 4*
