Jesus in the Temple

Jesus went to Jerusalem during Passover and went into the Temple and saw people had turned it into a marketplace. People were selling animals and exchanging money. Jesus was so angry he pushed over the tables and said to the people "Take these things out of here! Don't make my Father's house a place for buying and selling!"

"Don't make my Father's house a place for buying and selling!"

John 2 v 16
